TWO JAILED FOR LIFE

for gruesome murder of Northam's Hennie Venter

Platinum Bushvelder newspaper | Northam – Five years after Hennie Venter's family and neighbours handed out flyers and put up posters hoping to bring him home, two men have been sentenced to life imprisonment for his murder.

On Friday 6 November 2026, the Polokwane High Court found Gareth Alexander Potgieter and Wynand Carel Steyn, both 38, guilty of murdering Hendrik Stephanus "Hennie" Venter (43). Each man also received five years for defeating the ends of justice. The court ordered the five-year terms to run concurrently with the life sentences.

Platinum Bushvelder has followed the case since Venter was reported missing in 2021.

In those early weeks, as his family and the Northam community searched for him, a relative told the newspaper, "There are so many questions and no answers, yet we remain hopeful."

Venter, a 35-year-old man from Northam went missing on 11 September 2021. He took his dog and left home on foot without telling anyone where he was going.

Limpopo police spokesperson colonel Malesela Ledwaba said investigators confirmed in July 2022 that Venter had been murdered. His body had been dismembered and burned, and his remains were discarded along the De Put gravel road near Northam. Police arrested Potgieter in Bloemfontein. Steyn was already in custody in connection with a copper theft case.

Investigators recovered human ribs and vertebrae (bones from his spine), as well as Venter's ring. They also seized a basin that forensic testing later confirmed contained his DNA, along with a saw, an axe and an electric wood saw. Captain Piet Du Plessis of the Northam Detectives Unit led the investigation.

Limpopo provincial police commissioner lieutenant general Jan Scheepers welcomed the convictions and sentences and commended Du Plessis for his work on the case.

All of us at Platinum Bushvelder send our heartfelt condolences to Hennie's family and loved ones, who have carried the pain of his loss through these long years.

Farm robbery case moves to December

Platinum Bushvelder newspaper* | *Thabazimbi – Three men accused of robbing customers at a farm outside Thabazimbi are due back in the Thabazimbi Magistrates' Court on Thursday, 3 December 2026, after their case was postponed.

Jerry Nkosi, Simphiwe Ndlovu and Manuel Langa face charges including robbery with aggravating circumstances and possession of stolen property. The matter had previously been set down for 5 November.

The charges stem from a robbery on 2 June 2026. According to police, men wearing balaclavas and allegedly armed with firearms robbed customers who were queuing to buy goods at the farm. The men allegedly fled towards Brits in a red VW Polo. SAPS, private security companies, rural safety structures and RPL camera operators from Thabazimbi, Koedoeskop and Brits took part in a joint operation that led to the three men's arrest at Blou Bul Padstal. Police recovered two firearms, an undisclosed amount of cash and a wallet containing one of the victims' identity document, driver's licence and bank cards. Officers also seized the VW Polo allegedly used in the robbery.

Thabazimbi rape case returns to court on 19 November

Platinum Bushvelder newspaper* | *Thabazimbi – A 26-year-old man appeared in the Thabazimbi Magistrates' Court on Monday 9 November 2026, on a charge of raping his 14-year-old sister. The case was postponed to Thursday, 19 November 2026, to allow the accused to arrange legal representation and for a possible bail application. Limpopo police spokesperson colonel Malesela Ledwaba said officers were on patrol early on Thursday, 5 November, when a local hospital alerted them to the girl's report. She told police the alleged abuse had occurred on several occasions. Police opened a rape case and arrested the man later that day. The investigation is continuing.

R510 CRACK NEAR AMANDELBULT UNDER DAILY WATCH

Platinum Bushvelder newspaper | Northam – Motorists using the R510 near Amandelbult Mine should stick to the posted 40 km/h speed limit and expect stop-and-go traffic control while crews stabilise a cracked section of the road. The South African National Roads Agency (SANRAL) says the affected lane remains open and is currently safe to use.

The crack, first reported on Friday, 6 November 2026, runs along the road surface next to the concrete barriers. In response to questions from Platinum Bushvelder, SANRAL said its maintenance route manager is monitoring the crack daily.

SANRAL identified the damage as slip cracking. The agency attributed it to pressure from truck tyres and the weight of the concrete barriers, combined with movement in the road surface next to an excavation that left the road edge unsupported.

Temporary work was set to begin on Wednesday, 11 November. Crews will place gravel behind the barriers across a three-metre-wide strip to support the road edge. The maintenance contractor will also seal the cracks with bitumen-treated fabric to help keep water out.

SANRAL said the 40 km/h speed limit was already in place before the crack appeared. The agency urged drivers to slow down on approach, follow the posted signs and be patient during stop-and-go operations.

Construction to complete the road project, which has been unfinished since 2024, is scheduled to continue on Monday, 11 January 2027. The permanent repair is expected to form part of that work. SANRAL anticipates further closures once construction starts and says it will advise the public if additional restrictions are needed.

A long crack runs alongside the concrete barriers on the R510 near Amandelbult Mine, outside Northam.

SANRAL says its maintenance route manager checks the crack daily while crews carry out temporary work to support the road edge.

Farmers and park teams help contain Marakele wildfire

Platinum Bushvelder newspaper | Thabazimbi – Neighbouring farmers joined Marakele National Park staff to fight a wildfire that swept into the reserve and flared up again after rain had put out the flames. The fire started on private property next to the park on Monday, 2 November 2026, before spreading across the boundary. By Tuesday morning, rain had extinguished the active flames, giving crews a brief reprieve. As temperatures rose that afternoon, hot spots reignited and the fire crossed the railway line on the eastern side of the park. With the blaze threatening to spread deeper into the reserve, park management carried out a controlled back-burn around the affected area. The operation burned vegetation ahead of the advancing flames, cutting off their fuel and helping crews contain the fire. Marakele conservation manager Tshifhiwa Mauda said the back-burn had stopped the wildfire from spreading further into the park. He thanked the neighbouring farmers and everyone who helped bring the blaze under control.

Titles on the line as rally-raid roars into Koedoeskop

Toyota Gazoo Racing's Guy Botterill and Henry Köhne in action. The pair head to the Northam Zondereinde Bushveld 400 with three consecutive wins. Photo credit: Dave Ledbitter.

Platinum Bushvelder newspaper | Thabazimbi – Three straight wins, a title fight separated by just five points, and four Audi Quattros with Dakar pedigree. The Northam Zondereinde Bushveld 400 will bring all three to the Thabazimbi area on Friday and Saturday, 13 and 14 November 2026.

Only one national title has been settled heading into the fifth and final round of the 2026 South African Rally-Raid Championship. Toyota Gazoo Racing's Guy Botterill and navigator Henry Köhne arrive on a winning streak after taking the past three rounds. Their teammates Saood Variawa and Charan Moore won the season opener, while Ford's Gareth Woolridge and Boyd Dreyer have finished on the podium at every round and remain in the hunt for the Ultimate FIA T1+ honours. In the Ultimate SA T1+ class, just five points separate leaders Johan and Sean van Staden from Philip Botha and Andries Mynhardt. The Adventurer title is also still up for grabs, with Nielen Marx and Rikus Hattingh chasing class leaders Peet Victor and VanZyl Jonck.

One of the weekend's biggest draws will be four 1985 Audi Quattro replicas fielded by the Dutch Quattro Legends team. The eight crew members will be racing in South Africa for the first time. Among them is Erik van Loon, who won the H4 class at the 2025 Dakar Classic and will race here with navigator Hein Verschuuren.

When and where to catch the action

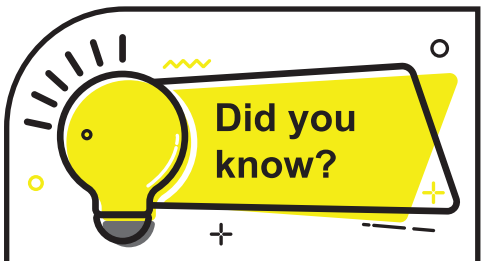

Racing opens on Friday at 09:30 with a 22 km qualifier to determine the starting order for Stage One, a 108 km section that gets under way at 13:00. Crews tackle the same section again from 08:30 on Saturday for Stage Two.

Koedoeskop Laerskool, about 44 km south of Thabazimbi just off the R511, will serve as race headquarters and the designated service park. Saturday's final stage starts and finishes at the school, where the podium ceremonies will also take place.

WHY ONIONS MAKE US CRY... An onion can bring you to tears before you've even finished chopping it. When your knife breaks open the onion's cells, it sets off a chemical reaction that releases an irritating vapour. The culprit has a tongue-twisting name, syn-propanethial-S-oxide. When it reaches your eyes, they produce tears to flush it away. Those kitchen tears are a reflex, even if you're in a perfectly good mood.
