Explosives bust:

Northam couple arrested

The explosives discovered by police during a search.

The R5,000 in cash allegedly used in an attempt to bribe police officers.

Platinum Bushvelder newspaper | Northam – A joint police intelligence operation in Northam led to the arrest of a couple on charges of possession of explosives and attempting to bribe police. According to Limpopo police spokesperson colonel Malesela Ledwaba, members of the Thabazimbi and Northam Detective Units, together with the Rustenburg Explosives Unit, acted on information about a woman allegedly keeping explosives at a house in the Northam RDP Section. Police swiftly moved to the residence, where they found a 27-year-old woman and conducted a search of the property. Members of the Rustenburg Explosives Unit discovered explosives inside the house, and the woman was immediately arrested for possession of explosives. During questioning, the suspect allegedly told police that the explosives belonged to her 39-year-old boyfriend, who works at a local mine. Shortly after the arrest, the boyfriend reportedly approached police officers in an attempt to negotiate his girlfriend's release, offering them R5,000 in cash. Police then set up an entrapment operation, and the 39-year-old man was arrested after he handed the money to officers. The couple appeared in the Northam Magistrate's Court on Monday, 2 March 2026, facing charges of possession of explosives and bribery of police officials. Investigations are continuing.

Police are searching for Sibongiseni Khumalo (30), who escaped from police custody from the Thabazimbi Hospital while under guard.

THABAZIMBI HOSPITAL ESCAPE SPARKS PROVINCE-WIDE HUNT FOR ARMED ROBBERY SUSPECT

Platinum Bushvelder newspaper | Thabazimbi police have intensified their search for a 30-year-old awaiting trial prisoner who escaped from lawful custody while admitted at a local hospital. According to the South African Police Service (SAPS) in Limpopo, the incident occurred at Thabazimbi Hospital on Saturday, 28 February 2026, at approximately 18:00. Police spokesperson colonel Malesela Ledwaba said the suspect, Sibongiseni Khumalo, had been arrested in connection with a business robbery and was shot during the arrest. He was subsequently admitted to hospital and placed under police guard. Preliminary investigations indicate that Khumalo allegedly asked to go to the bathroom, where he managed to escape from custody. "The circumstances surrounding the escape are currently under internal investigation," Ledwaba confirmed. Police are urging members of the public to assist with information that could help locate Khumalo. Anyone with information should please contact investigating officer captain Du Plessis on 082 565 7611, the Crime Stop number 08600 10111, report to their nearest police station, or submit a tip via the MySAPSApp. On Wednesday, 11 March 2026, Platinum Bushvelder received confirmation that Khumalo remains at large, and the search for him is ongoing.

Wildlife vs Wheels:
Two Kudu
Collisions in Just Days

Platinum Bushvelder newspaper | Thabazimbi

Two separate wildlife collisions within days have reminded motorists in the Thabazimbi and Amandelbult areas that the bushveld doesn't stop at the roadside. Emergency services responded to two incidents involving kudus and vehicles this week – one on the R510 near Amandelbult and another on Setaria Road near Crocodile Bridge. Fortunately, no people were injured in either incident, although both animals were fatally struck.

Sunday night collision on the R510

At around 19:00 on Sunday, 8 March 2026, emergency services were called to an incident on the R510 near Amandelbult after a kudu was struck by a vehicle. According to Pierre Loots, Thaba Fire and Rescue CEO, a bakkie collided with the animal, causing the driver to lose control. The vehicle then came to rest in front of another nearby bakkie, resulting in both vehicles being involved in the incident. Fortunately, no serious injuries were reported among those involved. However, the kudu did not survive the impact. Multiple emergency and support services responded to assist and secure the scene, including Thaba Fire and Rescue, Limpopo Provincial Traffic, Thabazimbi Traffic, Netcare 911, Eagle Trauma Rescue, Amandelbult Security, P&K Towing and Recovery, Fearless Towing, and SAPS.

Early morning bus collision on Setaria Road

A second kudu-related incident occurred early Wednesday morning, 11 March 2026, shortly after 06:00, on the Setaria road just past Crocodile Bridge. A small bus transporting mine employees collided with a kudu that entered the roadway. Thankfully, none of the passengers or the driver were injured. Emergency responders quickly attended to the scene, including Thaba Fire and Rescue, SAPS, the Thabazimbi Traffic Department, State EMS Ambulance, and P&K Towing and Recovery. The kudu involved in the collision did not survive.

Why Kudus Often End Up on the Road

Kudus are among the wildlife species most frequently involved in vehicle collisions in South Africa, particularly in bushveld regions where roads pass through their natural habitat. Several factors increase the risk:

- Powerful jumpers: Kudus can leap over obstacles as high as 2.5 metres, meaning they can suddenly appear on the road.
- Natural camouflage: Their vertical white stripes

One of the two bakkies involved in the Sunday evening collision on the R510 near Amandelbult after a kudu ran into the roadway.

The employee transport bus that struck a kudu on Setaria Road early Wednesday morning while transporting mine workers.

help them blend into tall grass and bush, making them difficult to see in low light.

- Peak activity times: Kudus are most active during early mornings and late afternoons, when many people are commuting.
- Freeze response: When threatened, they often stand still rather than immediately running, relying on camouflage before suddenly bounding away.

A fully grown male kudu can weigh up to 300 kilograms, and collisions with such large animals can cause significant vehicle damage and pose serious danger to motorists. With wildlife sightings continuing along the R510 and surrounding bushveld roads, authorities are reminding drivers that a few seconds of caution could prevent a serious accident.

Drivers Urged to Stay Alert for Wildlife

According to Loots, motorists should remain especially vigilant for wildlife on local roads, particularly during night-time and early morning hours when animals are more active. Loots noted that there have been several reports from motorists travelling along the R510 during early mornings and late evenings who have spotted wildlife close to the road. Drivers are advised to:

- Reduce speed in areas where wildlife is common
- Watch the roadside carefully, especially where grass is long
- Stay alert during dusk and dawn, when visibility is reduced
- Look for the reflection of animals' eyes in headlights near the road

"These reflections can often provide an early warning that wildlife may be close to the roadway," Loots explained.

Armed robbers target hitchhikers on R510

Platinum Bushvelder newspaper | Northam – Residents and commuters travelling between Northam and Rustenburg have been urged to remain vigilant following two armed robberies reported along the R510 near the Leagajang junction. The incidents occurred in the early hours of Friday 6 March 2026, and are currently under investigation.

According to warrant officer Ofentse Mokgadi, both robberies followed a similar agenda. In each case, victims who were seeking lifts along the road were picked up by occupants of a silver-grey Datsun Go carrying three unknown men believed to be speaking Zulu. Shortly after the victims entered the vehicle, the situation turned risky. One suspect seated in the front allegedly produced a firearm, while another suspect in the rear seat threatened the victims with a knife. The suspects then searched the victims and took several personal belongings before forcing them out of the vehicle. The suspects reportedly fled the scene immediately after the robberies.

Among the items taken from victims were cellphones, cash, bank cards, personal identification documents, jewellery, and shoes.

Anyone with information is encouraged to contact the Mogwase Police Station or captain William Ratsoma on 082 569 4887. Investigations into the robberies are ongoing.

HAVE YOUR SAY

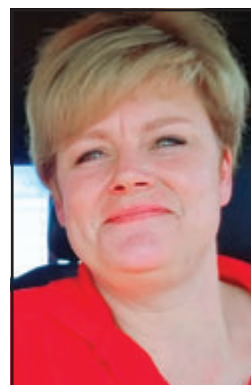

In today's day and age, do you think war is ever justified?

With current global conflicts raising difficult moral questions, many reflect on the idea that there may be a time for war and a time for peace – even a time to pick up a stone and a time to set it aside. In today's world, can war ever truly be justified? What do you think?

"War brings great suffering and should be avoided whenever possible. Conflicts should be resolved through dialogue and diplomacy. Only in rare cases, such as defending a nation or protecting innocent lives, could war be considered."

Pernelle Musadavira, Thabazimbi

"Ja, soms moet mens 'cruel to be kind' wees. Mense moet besef dat moeilike besluite soms nodig is sodat die regte keuses op die regte tyd gemaak kan word."

Nelie Pieterse, Thabazimbi

Do you think siblings should ever be legally required to support each other financially?

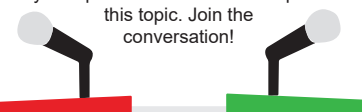

South African common law recognises a family "duty of support," which can, in rare cases, extend to siblings if someone cannot support themselves and other family options are unavailable. The rule has recently sparked debate. What do you think – fair family responsibility or an unfair legal burden?

SIBLINGS COULD BE ASKED TO PAY MAINTENANCE...
Many South Africans have recently been surprised to learn that, in certain situations, the law may allow maintenance claims between siblings (recent social media). Under South African common law, family members have a broader "duty of support." This means that if someone cannot support themselves and close relatives such as parents cannot help, a court could consider ordering a financially able sibling to contribute. Such cases are uncommon and depend on strict conditions decided by a maintenance court. The rule has sparked debate, with some people questioning whether it is fair, while others see it as part of family responsibility.

Vier HFM-skuts het eerste plekke in hul onderskeie afdelings verower: Reinhart Labuschagne, Jeanmari Viljoen, Suzaan Bekker en Mienke Snyman. Nog drie skuts het sterk vertonings gelewer en tweede plekke behaal: Mardus Ras, AJ Swanepoel en Jordan Naude. Die skool is trots op elke skut wat deelgeneem het en HFM se naam hoog gehou het. Baie geluk aan al die boogskutters!

Rhinos charge into the final with dominant win

Fly-half Johnny Welthagen, named Player of the Match, played a crucial role in the Rhinos' semi-final victory.

Platinum Bushvelder newspaper | Setaria

The Rhino Rugby Club's first team delivered a commanding performance on Saturday, 7 March 2026, defeating Brakpan 61-14 in the semi-final of the Sibanye Super League at Bushveld Park by Setaria.

From the opening whistle, the Rhinos showed determination and attacking flair, quickly taking control of the match. Their relentless pace, strong defensive structure, and well-executed plays proved too much for Brakpan, allowing the home side to run in multiple tries and secure a convincing victory.

The emphatic win means the Rhinos have officially qualified for the Sibanye Super League final, where they will compete for the title at one of South Africa's most iconic rugby venues, Loftus Versfeld.

One of the standout performers of the match was fly-half Johnny Welthagen, who was named Player of the Match.

Welthagen played a key role in orchestrating the Rhinos' attacking plays, guiding the team around the field with confidence and precision. His vision, kicking accuracy, and calm decision-making helped maintain momentum for the Rhinos throughout the game, contributing significantly to the team's dominant scoreline.

ALL EYES ON THE FINAL AT LOFTUS VERSFELD

The Rhino Rugby Club's first team will now shift their focus to the Sibanye Super League Final, where they will face HK Bulle.

Match details:

- Date: 20 March 2026
- Venue: Loftus Versfeld, Pretoria
- Opposition: HK Bulle
- Kick-off: 16:00
- Competition: Sibanye Super League Final

The upcoming final promises to be an exciting clash as the Rhinos aim to carry their winning momentum onto the big stage and bring the Sibanye Super League title home.

Rhino Rugby Club's first team celebrates after their impressive semi-final victory over Brakpan.
