Fuel prices no April Fool's joke!

Scenes of urgency at Obaro on Tuesday, 31 March 2026 – vehicles lined up for diesel as tension and desperation filled the air.

CHAOS, QUEUES AND A COSTLY REALITY IN THABAZIMBI

Platinum Bushvelder newspaper | Thabazimbi – What felt like an April Fool's prank quickly turned into reality as fuel shortages and steep price hikes sent Thabazimbi into panic. Residents rushed to fill up as diesel supplies rapidly dried up across town, leaving only a few stations operational by 31 March. Long queues formed, with frustration – and desperation – clearly visible as motorists waited for hours, unsure if fuel would last. The pressure came as South Africa implemented a sharp fuel price increase from 1 April 2026. Inland petrol (95) jumped from about R20.19 per litre in March to around R25.13 per litre, while diesel surged dramatically – rising by over R8 per litre, pushing wholesale prices to roughly R26+ per litre. The spike is largely driven by global oil disruptions linked to conflict in the Middle East, combined with a weaker rand and rising taxes. In response to the shock, government announced temporary relief measures, including a reduction of the general fuel levy by about R3 per litre for April, aimed at easing pressure on consumers. Despite this, diesel shortages remain a major concern. Because diesel prices are not fully regulated at retail level, supply constraints and pricing differences have added to uncertainty on the ground. For many residents, the focus has shifted from price to availability – highlighting just how fragile fuel supply has become. What started as panic has now become a harsh reality motorists must navigate daily.

Karabo Ramosibuoli, a petrol attendant at MBT, assists customers as pressure mounts during the fuel rush.

Fuel-Saving Tips...

Drive smoothly – avoid sudden acceleration and harsh braking. Keep tyres properly inflated and service your vehicle regularly. Remove unnecessary weight from your car and limit aircon use where possible. Plan trips ahead, combine errands, and consider carpooling to cut costs. Compare fuel prices between stations, especially diesel, as it varies. Small changes can make a big difference to your monthly fuel spend.

PSA outraged by NSFAS corruption: Demands immediate accountability

Platinum Publishers | SA – The Public Servants Association (PSA) is alarmed and outraged regarding revelations by the auditor-general, indicating that the National Student Financial Aid Scheme (NSFAS) continues to disburse bursary funds to 822 deceased students, reflecting a severe collapse in governance, financial controls, and basic administrative integrity within the organisation.

According to multiple credible reports, 822 students listed as deceased in the Department of Home Affairs database were still receiving NSFAS bursaries. The PSA is further disturbed that the same audit uncovered continued funding of more than 14,000 students whose household incomes exceed eligibility thresholds, as well as thousands who failed academic progression requirements or already hold prior qualifications. Additionally, 321 students were found to be "double dipping," receiving NSFAS bursaries and social relief of distress grants. These findings indicate a systemic governance failure in NSFAS, supported by evidence of unsafe and non-compliant student accommodation arrangements that severely compromise student welfare. This scandal mirrors long-standing concerns regarding mismanagement and corruption in NSFAS, which has consistently failed to implement previous audit recommendations. The auditor-general has issued NSFAS with a disclaimer of opinion, the most severe audit outcome possible, confirming a profound breakdown in transparency and accountability. This dire situation resulted in the minister of Higher Education and Training ordering an urgent forensic investigation and activated collaboration with the Special Investigating Unit. Whilst the PSA acknowledges this intervention, it is emphasised that reactive investigations are not enough. Systemic reform is required to restore public trust. The PSA therefore demands an immediate full forensic audit of all NSFAS beneficiaries and service providers, including retrospective recovery of misallocated funds. Implicated officials should be suspended pending disciplinary and possible criminal proceedings.

Would you trust someone again if you caught them lying to you?

Trust is the foundation of any relationship, but a single lie can break it. Some believe honesty can rebuild what was lost, while others feel trust, once broken, is gone for good. What do you think – second chance or final goodbye?

Did you know?

YOUR BODY NEEDS WATER MORE THAN YOU THINK...
 Did you know that even mild dehydration can affect your mood, focus, and energy levels? Experts say losing just 1-2% of your body's water can make you feel tired and reduce concentration.

In South Africa's warm climate, many people don't drink enough water during the day – especially while working outdoors or driving long distances. Your body is made up of about 60% water, and staying hydrated helps regulate temperature, support brain function, and keep your muscles working properly. So next time you feel sluggish, try a glass of water... you might just need hydration, not rest.

Platinum Bushvelder koerant | Thabazimbi – Die South African National Field Archery Competition (SANFAC) 2026 boogskiet se jaarlikse prestige byeenkoms, van 20 tot 22 Maart 2026, is oor drie dae in Bloemfontein aangebied, waar Thabazimbi se skuts hul staal behoorlik gewys het teen sterk nasionale kompetisie. Met 'n uitdagende baan, warm klimaat en vaardige deelnemers van regoor die land, was die kompetisie alles behalwe maklik. Tog het die Thabazimbi Boogklub uitstekend gevaar en 'n indrukwekkende aantal medaljes huis toe gebring. Klubvoorsitter, Chris Welgemoed – ook eienaar van Thaba Boog en Hengel – het self uitblink en goud verower, 'n bewys van sy ervaring en vaardigheid in die sport.

Die skuts het oor lang afstande geskiet – tot 80 yards (ongeveer 73,15 meter) – wat die kompetisie nog meer veeleisend gemaak het. Baie geluk aan al die deelnemers vir drie dae van fokus, deursoortingsvermoë en uitstekende sportmanskap. Jaco Janse van Vuuren en Jacques Naudé het ook sterk mededinging in hul onderskeie klasse gebied. Hiermee sluit die veldboogskietseisoen 2025/2026 op 'n hoë noot af – met medaljes en trots vir Thabazimbi.

Nuwe skuts is welkom om elke Dinsdagaand om 17:45 saam te oefen by die Koo Cronjé-skietbaan. Bring jou eie boog en pyl. 'n Besoekersfooi is betaalbaar. Vir meer inligting, kontak Chris Welgemoed by 082 921 1218.

EASTER 2026 MESSAGE FROM TLM MAYOR

Dear residents and valued stakeholders,

On behalf of the Municipal Councillors and staff of Thabazimbi Local Municipality, we extend our warmest Easter greetings to you and your loved ones.

Easter is a sacred and meaningful time that reminds us of renewal, hope, and the enduring power of faith. It offers us an opportunity to pause, reflect, and reconnect with the values that strengthen our community: compassion, unity, and service to one another.

As we move into this season, with cooler days settling across our beautiful Bushveld region, we are reminded of the resilience and spirit that define the people of Thabazimbi Local Municipality. Despite the challenges we may face, it is through collective effort and mutual support that we continue to build a stronger, more inclusive municipality for all.

We encourage all residents to use this time to reconnect with family and friends, to reflect spiritually, and to extend kindness to those who may be less fortunate. Even the simplest act of generosity can bring comfort and hope to someone in need, and together these acts strengthen the fabric of our community.

We also urge everyone to prioritise safety during this period. Whether you are travelling, attending religious gatherings, or spending time at home, please remain vigilant and take the necessary precautions to ensure the wellbeing of yourself and others.

May this Easter bring you peace, renewed strength, and a sense of purpose. Let us embrace this season with gratitude and continue working together towards a prosperous and united Thabazimbi.

Wishing you a blessed and joyful Easter.

CLLR RA TSHIKUDU
MAYOR
THABAZIMBI LOCAL MUNICIPALITY

Milan Naudé van Laerskool van Wykskraal, trots met haar goue medalje ná haar wen by SANFAC 2026 in Bloemfontein.

Milan mik reg en tref SA-titel!

Platinum Bushvelder koerant | Thabazimbi – Laerskool van Wykskraal straal van trots nadat een van hul leerders, Milan Naudé, 'n uitmuntende prestasie behaal het by die Nasionale Veldboogskietkompetisie (SANFAC) 2026.

Die gesogte SANFAC 2026-kompetisie is oor drie dae, van 20 tot 22 Maart 2026, in Bloemfontein aangebied en het van die land se beste jong boogskutters byeengebring. Milan Naudé het uitgestaan as 'n ware kampioen deur goud te verower in die afdeling Junior Female Bowhunter Unlimited (Field). Haar fokus, deursoortingsvermoë en vaardigheid het haar bo-aan die podium geplaas en haar as een van die land se opkomende sterre in boogskiet gevestig.
