Approximately R18,000 in cash was allegedly recovered inside the suspects' vehicle during the intelligence-driven police operation.

TRADITIONAL HEALER SCAM ENDS IN NEARLY R100,000 BUST

Cash discovered inside a safe at a guest house in Brits formed part of the nearly R100,000 recovered during the police investigation.

Platinum Bushvelder newspaper / Northam – A fast-moving intelligence-driven operation by Northam police and PPS Security Brits has led to the arrest of two suspects and the recovery of nearly R100,000 in cash following an alleged fraud case involving a fake traditional healer. According to Limpopo SAPS spokesperson colonel Malesela Ledwaba, police acted swiftly after receiving information about suspects allegedly linked to a case of theft under false pretences in Northam on Monday, 25 May 2026. Reports indicate that a victim was allegedly deceived out of a substantial amount of money by an individual posing as a traditional healer. Police immediately launched an operation and traced a white Toyota Corolla believed to have been used during the commission of the offence. The vehicle was intercepted in Brits where a 38-year-old man and a 49-year-old woman were arrested. During the arrest, police recovered several bank cards, multiple cellphones, the complainant's cellphone, and approximately R18,000 in cash inside the vehicle. Further investigations later led officers to a guest house in Brits, where additional money was discovered inside a safe. In total, police recovered R96,700 in cash. All items seized during the operation were confiscated for further investigation. The suspects are expected to appear before the Northam Magistrate's Court soon on charges of theft under false pretences. The provincial commissioner of police in Limpopo, lieutenant general Thembi Hadebe, praised the members involved for their quick response. Investigations continue.

ONE BRICK AT A TIME

Delegates, municipal leaders and community members gather at the Regorogile Ext 8 Paving Project launch as the first symbolic bricks were laid during the "One Brick One Man" event.

Platinum Bushvelder newspaper | Thabazimbi, Regorogile – A spirit of progress filled the air on Tuesday, 26 May 2026, as the Thabazimbi Local Municipality officially launched the Regorogile Ext 8 Paving Project during a symbolic "One Brick One Man" community event. The occasion marked an important milestone for the municipality's ongoing efforts to improve infrastructure and service delivery. During the event, executive mayor Cllr Andries Tshukudu officially installed the very first brick of the paving project, symbolising the beginning of what residents hope will bring safer, cleaner and more accessible roads to Regorogile. The launch was attended by councillors, municipal officials under the leadership of municipal manager GC Letsoalo, community leaders and residents, all coming together in support of the development initiative. According to the municipality, the laying of the first brick represented far more than the start of a construction project. The municipality also expressed appreciation to all stakeholders and community members who attended and supported the launch.

Bail granted in alleged mall rape case involving minor

Platinum Bushvelder newspaper | Thabazimbi – The case involving the alleged rape of a 15-year-old girl at a local mall in Thabazimbi has been postponed to 31 July 2026 for further investigation, following the accused's recent court appearances. The accused, 54-year-old Lazurus Mabotsane, appeared in the Thabazimbi Magistrate's Court. The matter was initially postponed to 18 May 2026 for a formal bail application. On 22 May 2026, the matter returned to court for address verification and bail proceedings. Bail, set at R500, was granted and fixed by the court. However, according to information available at the time, it was still unclear whether the accused had managed to pay bail due to financial difficulties. The case now stands postponed until 31 July 2026 as police investigations continue. The arrest follows an incident allegedly reported to have taken place on Thursday, 30 April 2026, at a local mall. According to previous police information, the teenager had allegedly been at the mall with a friend and the friend's father — believed to be their neighbour — when the incident occurred. Limpopo SAPS spokesperson colonel Malesela Ledwaba previously stated that the girl allegedly went to the restroom, where she encountered the accused waiting near the exit. It is alleged that she was forcibly taken into the male restroom, where the assault allegedly occurred. Police investigations continue.

HAVE YOUR SAY

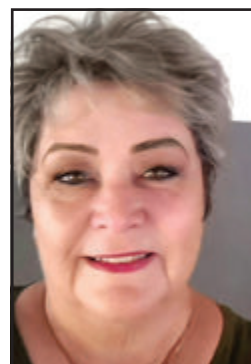

Should government rather use money earmarked for town and city name changes to help lower petrol and diesel prices for South Africans?

With fuel prices continuing to put extreme pressure on households, businesses and daily travel costs, many South Africans are questioning government spending priorities. Some believe the millions spent on changing town and city names could rather be used to help reduce petrol and diesel prices and ease the financial burden on citizens. What do YOU think?

"Town and city name changes have cultural value, but right now many South Africans are struggling financially. Reducing fuel costs would bring faster and wider relief to ordinary citizens."

Ontirese Ganetsang, Northam

"With living costs rising, many people feel government should prioritise practical support like lower fuel prices instead of spending millions on symbolic projects during difficult economic times."

SOUTH AFRICANS LOSE MILLIONS OF RANDB EVERY YEAR TO ONLINE SCAMS... Criminals often pretend to be banks, delivery companies, online sellers, or even family members on WhatsApp. One of the fastest-growing scams worldwide is "AI voice cloning", where scammers use artificial intelligence to mimic someone's voice. Experts warn people to never share OTPs, banking details, or personal information online without first verifying who they are speaking to.
