PROUDLY SOUTH AFRICA'S LEADING MINING & INDUSTRIAL SUPPLY COMPANY

OPENS IN THABAZIMBI

EDG strengthens local industry with the opening of its new Thabazimbi branch

Platinum Bushvelder newspaper | Thabazimbi – The official opening of EDG South Africa's new Thabazimbi branch marks an exciting new chapter for both the company and the region's thriving mining, industrial, agricultural and commercial sectors. The expansion brings one of South Africa's most established mining and industrial supply companies even closer to the customers and industries it has proudly served for more than six decades. Founded over 60 years ago, Electro Diesel Group (EDG) has grown from humble beginnings as a family business into a nationally recognised supplier of quality products, technical expertise and specialised engineering solutions. The opening of the Thabazimbi branch forms part of the company's ongoing national growth strategy while reinforcing its commitment to providing exceptional customer service wherever its clients operate.

Mystery deepens around German heiress’s death as police investigation continues

Platinum Bushvelder newspaper | Limpopo
– The mysterious deaths of German shipping heiress Caroline von Rantzau (26) and a senior manager at her family’s Limpopo safari lodge continue to raise questions, while the South African Police Service (SAPS) has released very little official information about the case. Caroline von Rantzau was found dead from a gunshot wound at the Leeuwfontein hunting reserve near Bulgerivier on Monday 1 June 2026, just one day after the body of the lodge’s financial manager, Arno Koën (44), was discovered on the same property with what police described as an apparent gunshot wound. Reportedly, police in Limpopo opened two inquest dockets and launched investigations into both deaths. Police spokesperson colonel Malesela Ledwaba confirmed to journalists that post-mortem examinations would determine the exact causes of death and whether further investigations would follow. At the time, no arrests had been made and no suspects had been identified. For a case involving the deaths of two people under unusual circumstances – one of them the daughter of a prominent German businessman with strong South African ties – the limited official communication has left many unanswered questions. The story has made headlines across South Africa and internationally, with widespread speculation surrounding the circumstances of the deaths. Initial reports from overseas incorrectly suggested that Von Rantzau had died in a motor vehicle accident before police confirmed that she had, in fact, sustained a fatal gunshot wound. Several days after the deaths, the Von Rantzau family’s legal representatives reportedly issued a public statement saying they believed both Caroline von Rantzau and Arno Koën had died by suicide and that there was “no suspicion of foul play”. The statement added that the family was cooperating fully with South African police. SAPS has, however, not publicly confirmed those conclusions, and police initially indicated that post-mortem examinations and ongoing investigations would determine the exact circumstances surrounding the deaths.

Caroline von Rantzau (26), the German shipping heiress who was found dead at the Leeuwfontein hunting reserve in Limpopo on 1 June. Police are continuing their investigation.

A LIFE LOST ON THE R511

Platinum Bushvelder newspaper | Thabazimbi
– A tragic road accident claimed the life of one person following a collision between a Volkswagen Polo and a truck on the R511, approximately 25km outside Thabazimbi towards Koedoeskop, on Friday 26 June 2026. The crash occurred at around 09:45. According to emergency services, the driver of the Volkswagen Polo sustained fatal injuries and was declared dead at the scene, while the truck driver escaped with minor injuries. The cause of the collision is still under investigation. Following the impact, the Polo caught fire. Firefighters from TLM’s Waterberg Fire and Rescue responded swiftly, extinguishing the flames before they could spread further. Several emergency and support services assisted at the scene, including Thaba Fire and Rescue, Eagle Trauma Rescue, Rieks Towing, P&K Towing and Recovery, Thaba Emergency Services, Waterberg District Fire and Rescue, Thabazimbi Traffic Department, Thabazimbi SAPS and Advenge, which cleaned up diesel and oil spilled on the roadway. Motorists experienced delays while the scene was cleared. Authorities have urged road users to remain vigilant and exercise caution. We extend our sincerest condolences to the family, friends and loved ones of the deceased during this difficult time.

Did you know?

EUROPE IS BAKING! Did you know that since 20 June 2026, Europe has been gripped by one of its most intense June heatwaves on record? Temperatures have climbed above 40°C in several countries, with new June records set in parts of France, Germany, Switzerland and the United Kingdom. The extreme heat has forced school closures, disrupted transport, fuelled wildfires and placed hospitals under pressure. Scientists say Europe is the world’s fastest-warming continent, making heatwaves like this increasingly frequent and severe.

Rhinos build momentum

Platinum Bushvelder newspaper | Setaria – The Northam Rhinos Rugby Club experienced a mixed afternoon on Saturday, 27 June 2026, as their senior teams travelled to Pirates Rugby Field for their Lions Grand Challenge fixtures. While the 1st Team narrowly went down 21-19 in a hard-fought encounter, the Rhinos' depth was on full display as both the 2nd and 3rd teams secured impressive victories. The 2nd Team claimed a convincing 33-12 win, while the 3rd Team edged out their opponents 22-17 after a determined performance. Reflecting on the day's results, Rhinos facilities and sport coordinator Flip de Kock remained optimistic. "Not the weekend we were hoping for away from home, but there were plenty of positives to take from the trip. Our 2nd and 3rd teams showed great character with hard-fought victories, while the 1st team fell just short in a tight contest. We regroup, learn and come back stronger. Thank you to everyone who travelled and supported the Rhinos." The club now shifts its focus to another important fixture this week. The Rhinos' 1st Team will take on Amandelbult Rugby Club in the Waterberg League on Friday, 3 July, at Amandelbult, with kick-off scheduled for 17:00. Confidence will be high after the club's recent Waterberg League success against Nylstroom on Friday, 26 June, where both senior sides celebrated victories. The 1st Team recorded an impressive 36-10 win, while the 2nd Team secured a thrilling 21-20 triumph. Supporters are encouraged to get behind the Rhinos as they look to continue their winning Waterberg League campaign.

Fondsinsameling van stapel gestuur vir Megan Koen se herstel

Platinum Bushvelder koerant | Thabazimbi – 'n BackaBuddy-veldtog is van stapel gestuur om Megan Koen en haar familie te ondersteun terwyl sy ná 'n ernstige motorongeluk aansterk. Megan en haar man, Donovan Koen, was op 16 Mei 2026 in 'n motorongeluk betrokke. Hoewel dit aanvanklik gelyk het asof Megan slegs 'n skouerbesering opgedoen het, het verdere ondersoeke ernstige inwendige beserings aan die lig gebring. Sederdien het sy reeds verskeie noodoperasies ondergaan en ontvang sy steeds behandeling in die Pietersburg Staatshospitaal. Volgens Donovan het hy ook beserings opgedoen en 'n groot operasie ondergaan, terwyl Megan na verwagting nog tussen twee en drie operasies sal moet ondergaan voordat haar herstpeld voltooi is. Die familie het die BackaBuddy-veldtog begin om te help met die groot finansiële druk wat die ongeluk veroorsaak het. Die fondse sal aangewend word vir onder meer reiskoste tussen Thabazimbi en Pietersburg, noodsaaklike benodighede tydens Megan se hospitaalverblyf en ander uitgawes wat met haar lang herstelproses verband hou. Hoewel Megan reeds merkwaardige deurstellingsvermoë getoon het, lê daar nog 'n lang pad van behandeling en rehabilitasie voor. Enigeen wat die familie wil ondersteun, kan 'n bydrae maak deur die BackaBuddy-veldtog via die QR-kode te besoek. Die familie spreek hul opregte dank uit aan elke persoon wat reeds ondersteuning gebied het. Volgens hulle word elke donasie, ongeag die bedrag, opreg waardeer en bring dit nuwe hoop terwyl Megan aanhou veg op haar pad na herstel.
